TSDREZ - REQBIL Sample XML

This document is designed to give a few garden variety examples of the REQBIL request and response. REQBIL is a useful tool to return an estimated bill for an existing reservation. It can also be used to enter specific reservation parameters (like pickup time/location, return time/location, etc.) in order to get an estimated bill before creating a new reservation.

Case 1 – Existing reservation

Entering the confirmation number in the request payload will return an estimated bill for an existing reservation. When the confirmation number is included, any parameters entered in other fields are ignored in favor of the reservation data. However, the request should still include values in Pickup location/time, return location/time, and rate ID.

Case 2 - Mandatory fields only

Case 2 shows a response using the minimum parameters of pickup location/time, return location/time and rate ID.

Case 3 – Estimated bill with company discount/adjustment

Case 3 returns a bill with a company's adjustment to rate applied. In this case, 1 10% adjustment to the rental rates has been applied.
